

AN INTRODUCTION

MODULE SUMMARY

This short guide will give you all of the information you need to successfully follow the myHappyMind program with your child at home.

We encourage you to read this guide and then look at the modules and activities before you begin. This will help to familiarise you with the way the content is structured.

The program is made up of 5 modules:

- 1. Meet Your Brain
- 2. Celebrate
- 3. Appreciate
- 4. Relate
- 5. Engage

...and we recommend they are followed in that order.

Within each of these 5 modules you'll find the following resources:

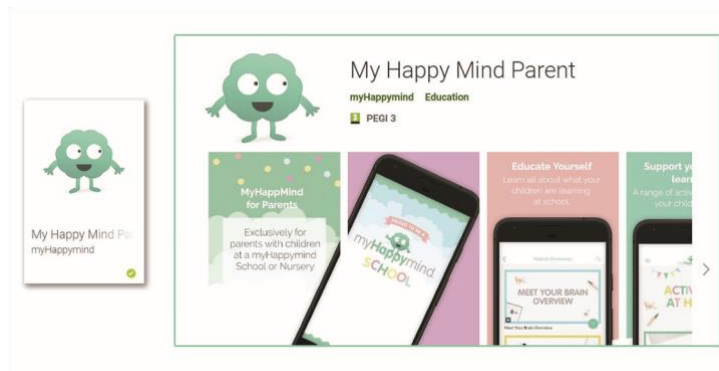

Parent Introduction

This overview explains everything you need to know about the content of the module.

Activity Guides

The Program Structure

These guides provide you with step by step instructions on how to run each of the activities so that you know exactly how to use the content.
